My dear Dr Jarrison,

The gentleman who will give this to you is a Brahmin from Bengal who has been studying medicine in Gt. Britain, & is now visiting America with the object of learning all that he can to serve his countrymen on his return to India. He has requested an introduction to you being anxious to become personally acquainted with those who were instrumental in abolishing slavery in your country.

You will I am sure give him your cordial sympathy & welcome—

He says he wishes to "imbibe all your good things" while travelling in your country.

Trusting you are well & will kind regards to Frank whose beautiful present—
"The Carey Memorials" has just arrived

Believe me ever

Yours most truly

Mary D Estlin
